SEPTEMBER 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Just the other morning I realized the days are getting noticeably shorter already. Summer has flown by school has started up and things are getting going around church once again. Catechism classes are resuming, Sunday school starts this month. And I imagine many of you are wrapping up your summer vacations.

As all these things are getting going, it can be easy to start to wonder, where did the time go? Maybe it's this sense of time passing so quickly that has led to phrases such as "time flies when you're having fun." Or perhaps it was this very phenomenon that St Peter had in mind when he wrote the following:

"But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day." - 2 Pet. 3:8

St Peter is essentially telling us God's sense of time is very different from our own. And we should trust His timing to be perfect.

So when you notice that the days seem to be flying by, or perhaps the exact opposite, that the days seem to be dragging on, remember that God's timing is different than our own. St Peter tells us that God handles things this way that He might be patient with us, in the very next verse we read,

"The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance." - 2 Pet. 3:8

God's seeming delay to fulfill His promise to return is just another way that He is showing us His grace and mercy. God doesn't want any to perish but all to receive His forgiveness in Christ.

That said, we continue to pray for His return just as St. John did at the end of Revelation. There we see a faithful response to Jesus' promise that He is coming. St. John writes,

"He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!" - Rev. 22:20

From this verse we get the beginning of our common table prayer. Reminding us every time we sit down to eat not only to ask the Lord's presence among us, but that He would return soon just as He promised. That return could be in a day it could be in a thousand years, we do not know. But we know He is coming.

And even as we wait we know that each day is His. Along with the psalmist we can trust that God is caring for us David reminds us in Psalm 31:

"But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, "You are my God." My times are in your hand" Ps. 31:14-15a

Our times are in His hands. Each day is a gift from Him. And no matter how fast or slow those days seem to go by, His promise reminds us that He is with us always. He reminded His disciples of this just before He departed from them.

"And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matt. 20:28b

So yes, the days may be getting shorter, summer may have flown by or it may have dragged. Work may be a chore or it may seem to go by so fast you don't even notice. Whatever you find yourself doing, however the time passes, know those times belong to the Lord.

May God bless you with every new day, and may we continue to pray together, "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus" as we look forward to that promised day He will return.

In Christ,
Pastor Nathan Peitsch
